COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES

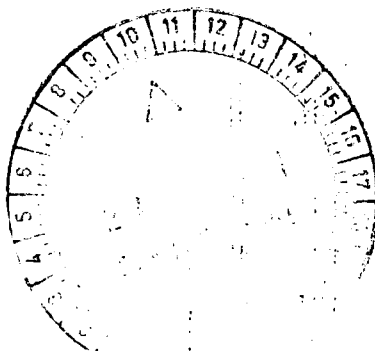

COM(81) 111 final

Brussels, 17 March 1981

Proposal for a
COUNCIL REGULATION (EEC)

Laying down the conditions on which Greece may maintain on a transitional basis certain national aid measures falling within the scope of the socio-structural Directives

(presented by the Commission to the Council)

COM(81) 111 final

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

Subject: Draft Council Regulation laying down the conditions on which the Hellenic Republic may maintain on a transitional basis certain national aid measures falling within the scope of the socio-structural Directives.

1. In accordance with Article 114 of the Act of Accession and Annex IV to the Act the Hellenic Republic shall, by 31 December 1983 at the latest, implement the measures necessary to comply with the provisions of the socio-structural Directives.

In accordance with the political agreement of the Conference, the national aid measures to be assessed with reference to the scope of the Directives, must be adapted to the conditions laid down by these Directives or even discontinued by the time of the Directives are implemented.

2. Having regard to Article 69 of the Act of Accession whereby the Hellenic Republic is authorized to maintain the national aid measures - including those within the scope of the socio-structural Directives - until 31 December 1985, the Hellenic Republic is requesting certain derogations from the abovementioned political agreement in respect of socio-structural aid measures.
3. As the derogations requested are of little importance in achieving the aims of the common policy for agricultural structure but much importance is attached politically in the Hellenic Republic to maintaining these minor aid measures, it is proposed to allow the following derogations:

a) Directive 75/268/EEC

The Hellenic Republic will be authorised to maintain until 31 December 1985:

- aid for barley growing and sheep and goat raising on farms of less than 3 ha of UAA,
- aid for small farmers growing common wheat.

As regards applying these measures in the areas - very limited - which do not fall within Directive 75/268/EEC, the rate of reduction applicable to certain other aids falling under Articles 92-94 of the Treaty applies.

b) Directive 72/159/EEC

The Hellenic Republic will be authorised to maintain until 31 December 1985 aid for the restocking of vineyards within the framework of a quality wine p.s.r. programme.

4. Further, under Article 69 paragraph 2 of the Act of Accession, the draft regulation establishes the list of aid measures which may be maintained until the socio-structural Directives are implemented.

PROPOSAL FOR

laying down the conditions on which Greece may maintain on a transitional basis certain national aid measures falling within the scope of the socio-structural Directives

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community,

Having regard to the Act of Accession of Greece, and in particular Article 69 thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the Commission,

Whereas, in accordance with the Joint Declaration on the procedure for the joint examination of national aids granted by Greece in the field of agriculture during the period prior to accession, annexed to the Treaty of Accession, the list of national aid measures which are to be assessed with reference to the scope of the socio-structural Directives referred to in Annex IV to the Act of Accession and which Greece is authorized to maintain on a transitional basis is to be as agreed within the Conference;

Whereas, however, that list should be updated in order to take account of corrections, of the abolition of certain aid measures, of changes in the way certain types of aid are granted and of any adjustment to the amount thereof which may have occurred in the meantime;

Whereas, under Article 114 of the Act of Accession and Annex IV thereto, Greece must implement the measures necessary to comply not later than 31 December 1983 with the socio-structural Directives mentioned in Annex IV; whereas this necessitates the abolition or adaptation of certain national aid measures which fall within the scope of these Directives and which Greece is authorized to maintain by Article 69 of the Act of Accession, subject to the terms of the latter;

Whereas, if the aid currently granted by Greece in certain regions to producers of common wheat and barley and to certain sheep and goat farmers were abolished, the incomes of the farmers concerned might be sharply reduced, and whereas Greece should, consequently, be authorized to maintain some aid measures beyond the date of implementation of Directive 75/268/EEC and to lay down the conditions relating thereto;

Whereas, if the amount of the aid currently granted by Greece for the restocking of vineyards under a quality wine p.s.r. programme was adapted to the terms of Directive 72/159/EEC, the objectives of the programme might be jeopardized, and whereas Greece should, consequently be authorized to maintain these amounts beyond the date of implementation of Directive 72/159/EEC;

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

1. With effect from 1 January 1981 the national aid measures which are to be assessed with reference to the scope of the socio-structural Directives mentioned in Annex IV to the Act of Accession and which Greece is authorized to maintain on a transitional basis shall be as laid down in the Annex.
2. The national aid measures referred to in paragraph 1 may be maintained, at the amounts specified in the Annex, until 31 December 1983. Should Greece implement the Directives referred to in the first paragraph before 31 December 1983, the national aid measures must be adapted to meet the conditions laid down by those Directives or discontinued by the time the Directives are implemented.
3. By way of derogation from paragraph 2, aids I, II, V (b) and XII may be maintained at the amounts and subject to the conditions laid down in the Annex until 31 December 1985.

Article 2

This Regulation shall enter into force on the third day following its publication in the Official Journal of the European Communities.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.
